Insurer Disclosure of Important Policy Provisions – Ohio

Please read your policy carefully for complete information on the coverage provided. If there is any conflict between the policy and this notice, the provisions of the policy will prevail.

Definitions

Orthopedic Condition. A condition affecting the bones, skeletal muscle, cartilage, tendons, ligaments, and joints. Orthopedic condition includes elbow dysplasia, hip dysplasia, intervertebral disc degeneration, patellar luxation, and ruptured cranial cruciate ligaments. Orthopedic condition does not include cancer or metabolic, hemopoietic, or autoimmune diseases.

Pet insurance. A property insurance policy that provides coverage for accidents and illnesses of pets.

Pre-existing condition. Pre-existing condition means any condition for which any of the following are true prior to the pet policy effective date of a pet insurance policy or during any waiting period:

a. A veterinarian provided medical advice.

b. The pet received previous treatment.

c. Based on information from verifiable sources, the pet had signs or symptoms directly related to the condition for which a claim is being made.

Renewal. To issue and deliver, at the end of a pet insurance policy period, a policy that supersedes a policy previously issued and delivered by the same pet insurer or an affiliated pet insurer, and which provides types and limits of coverage substantially similar to those contained in the policy being superseded.

Veterinarian. An individual who holds a valid license to practice veterinary medicine under Chapter 4741. of the Revised Code or from the appropriate licensing entity in the jurisdiction in which the veterinarian practices.

Waiting Period. A period of time specified in a pet insurance policy that is required to elapse before some or all of the coverage in the policy begins.

Right to Exam and Return Policy ("Free Look Period")

You have thirty (30) days from the day you receive this pet insurance policy, rider, or certificate to review it and, if you decide not to keep it, cancel the pet insurance. You do not have to tell the company why you are canceling the insurance. If you decide not to keep the insurance, you may cancel it by giving notice to the company at its administrative office or to the insurance agent from which you bought the insurance. If you cancel the insurance within that time, and have not filed a claim, the company is required by law to grant a full refund within 30 days after it receives your notice of cancellation. The refund will be sent directly to the person who paid for the insurance. The pet insurance policy, rider, or certificate will be void as if it had never been issued.

Exclusions

Pre-existing Conditions: We do not cover pre-existing conditions.

"Pre-existing condition" means any condition for which any of the following are true prior to the pet policy effective date of a pet insurance policy or during any waiting period:

a. A veterinarian provided medical advice.

b. The pet received previous treatment.

c. Based on information from verifiable sources, the pet had signs or symptoms directly related to the condition for which a claim is being made.

A condition for which coverage is afforded under a pet insurance policy shall not be considered a pre-existing condition under any renewal of that policy.

Other exclusions may apply. Please refer to the Exclusions & Limitations Section of the policy for more information.

Waiting Periods

- Fifteen (15) days from the pet policy effective date for illness or injury not resulting from an accident.
- Fifteen (15) days from the pet policy effective date for orthopedic conditions (other than hip dysplasia) not resulting from an accident.
- Thirty (30) days from the pet policy effective date for orthopedic conditions (hip dysplasia only) not resulting from an accident.
- The waiting period described above will be waived by us upon completion of a complete clinical examination.
- There shall be no waiting period for illness, injury or orthopedic conditions resulting from an accident.
- Waiting periods shall not be applied to a renewal of existing coverage.

Co-Insurance

Coinsurance is your portion of the cost of insured veterinary treatment for your pet before any deductible is applied. Your pet's coinsurance amount is shown as "Your Share" on the Pet Schedule of the declarations page.

Deductibles

Deductible is the amount you must first pay with respect to the cost of insured veterinary treatment for your pet after your pet's coinsurance portion has been applied. Your Pet's deductible is shown on the Pet Schedule of the declarations page. Your pet's deductible shall apply once per coverage term.

Basis for Claim Reimbursement

Reimbursements are based on your actual veterinary bill. We determine the total of the covered treatments and multiply that by your reimbursement rate. We then subtract your remaining annual deductible. For example:

$ 1,200	Covered treatments
x 90%	Your Reimbursement Level
$ 1,080	Sub-total
- $ 100	Remaining Annual Deductible
$ 980	Reimbursement Amount

Your pet's deductible is annual, meaning it must be satisfied only once per policy year and resets on the anniversary of your pet's enrollment.

Changes to Your Coverage and Premium

Premiums, coinsurance, deductibles or coverage may change based on the overall claims experience for the program within the region where the pet resides, geographic location, breed and age of pet, among other factors. Premiums are not based on your own pet's individual claims experience.
